

WANTED

Have you seen this couple?

We Moonlighting fans haven't been able to locate Maddie Hayes and David Addison for 14 years. They were last seen bickering, slamming doors, and falling in love. We are very concerned because they disappeared without leaving us a clear understanding about their relationship.

You can help us bring back America's most wanted couple by joining the Moonlighting Reunion Campaign.

We are striving to not let this love story fade away into a lunar eclipse.
